

HARRISON PUBLIC LIBRARY PRESENTS:

Connie Manna, Maker-In-Residence

PAINT LIKE GEORGIA O'KEEFFE: A PAINT AND WINE NIGHT

WED. 9/23

6:30 PM - 8:30 PM

Learn how to mix the subtle shades of acrylic paint required to recreate a Georgia O'Keeffe flower painting. For ages 21 and up. Space is limited. Please sign up so to receive the zoom meeting link and updated information if we host the program online.

Ms. Manna is an illustrator and teaching artist with BFA from the School of Visual Arts. She has held a solo exhibition and taught very popular painting workshops in the library and other organizations. She will lead five workshops during her summer residency at the library. For more information, please check out her profile on our Maker-In-Residency website.
