

The Harrison Public Library Presents

Online: Doing the Work: Discussion Series

Based on the Book Me and White Supremacy by

Layla F. Saad

In this six-week series, participants will read and share their responses to Me and White Supremacy: Combat Racism, Change the World and Become a Good Ancestor by Layla F. Saad. Series leaders, Sharon Drapeau and Tamara Gropper will create a brave space for participants to be in conversation with one another around their own understanding and experience of white supremacy. Each session will be 90 minutes long with required reading and reflection between sessions. Regular attendance throughout the series is strongly encouraged. This series is open to adults of all ages and backgrounds. Group size is limited to 10 participants due to the sensitive, frequently challenging nature of the content.

7:30 - 9:00 pm on the following dates:

Monday, January 11

Monday, January 25

Monday, February 1

Monday, February 8

Monday, February 22
